OVERVIEW

1. STATEMENTS

I've always been more interested in what happens outside the lines. [redacted] Contradictions, uncomfortable questions, hidden human insights. [redacted] [redacted] People are irrational. Advertising knows how to turn that irrationality into desire. Like Tarantino, I connect dots [redacted] that shouldn't belong together, drawing from pop suc culture, its obscure corners, and whatever rabbit hole [redacted] keeps me up at night. I turn those connections into ideas that provoke, entertain, and get under [redacted] people's skin. But provocation is only the beginning. [redacted] I want to dig deeper, where irony gives way to something real. [redacted] Something that makes people think, feel, cry. [redacted] Because if an idea doesn't make you feel something, what's the point?
